DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments, see amendment, filed 6/30/2009, with respect to the art rejections of claims 1-6, 8-10, 12-15 and 17-20 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The art rejections of claims 1-6, 8-10, 12-15 and 17-20 has been withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-6, 8-10, 12-15 and 17-20 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claim 1 teaches a combination of an analytical tool and a temperature detecting analytical device, the temperature detecting analytical device comprising a housing including a mounting portion for mounting the analytical, wherein said mounting portion comprises a table having a projecting portion protruding from said housing; wherein said analytical tool comprises a substrate separate from said mounting portion and a reagent portion formed on said substrate, said reagent portion being located above said projecting portion of said table outside said housing when said analytical tool is mounted onto said mounting portion; and wherein said temperature detection unit is located on said projecting portion of said table directly below and in vertical alignment with said reagent portion when said analytical tool is mounted on said mounting portion.

The closest prior art is represented by Ogura who teaches a concentration measurement apparatus that includes an apparatus main body, a retractable arm and a connector, where a biosensor can be moved by the retractable arm into the apparatus main body to be doused with urine. Ogura also teaches that a temperature sensor is disposed on an insulating layer of the biosensor itself, rather than a table having a projecting portion protruding from a housing and therefore teaches away from the claimed invention and wherein said temperature detection unit is located on said projecting portion of said table directly below and in vertical alignment with said reagent portion when said analytical tool is mounted on said mounting portion.

Claims 1-6, 8-10, 12-15 and 17-20 depend on this distinctive feature.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
